City of Boulder Open Space and Mountain Parks Department (OSMP) is hiring up to 4 seasonal Wildlife Technician positions for the Spring / Summer / Fall 2012 seasons. The successful candidates will perform wildlife inventory and monitoring of birds (forest and grassland), mammals, and amphibians following OSMP study plans and established protocols and will compile and organize wildlife data using Access, Excel and GIS.

Pay range is $12-$18 / hour depending on qualifications and OSMP budget. The positions are currently posted and open until filled. Find more information on the positions, including term lengths, by searching “seasonal job openings” on the City of Boulder’s homepage (www.bouldercolorado.gov/), or call our office at 303-441-3440 during normal business hours.
